

Culture Workers Bureau (CWB) 2009-2010 Tour

Mark P. Fancher
Lawyer, Author and Activist

Mark P. Fancher is an organizer for the All-African Peoples' Revolutionary Party. He is an attorney and a writer whose column, "Africanalysis" appears in African newspapers across the country. He is also the author of several books on Pan-Africanism. For nearly two decades, he has held national leadership positions with the National Conference of Black Lawyers. Through that organization he has participated in campaigns against domestic racial terrorism, imperialist military intervention and numerous other issues affecting the African World. He has an undergraduate degree in journalism from the University of Tennessee and a law degree from Rutgers University (Camden). He is available to speak on the following and other topics:

- 1. The legal and policy implications of Africa Command (AFRICOM)
- 2. Protection of rights to land, natural resources and traditional knowledge in Africa.
- 3. The state of employment discrimination law after the Ricci decision
- 4. Racial Profiling and Police Terror
- 5. Government repression (COINTELPRO)
- 6. The School-to-Prison Pipeline (Suspension/Expulsion of African children)